

Abel Laureate 2010

John Torrence Tate, University of Texas at Austin

«for his vast and lasting impact on the theory of numbers»

Abel Laureate 2009

Mikhail Leonidovich Gromov, Institut des Hautes Études Scientifiques, Bures-sur-Yvette, France

«for his revolutionary contributions to geometry.»

Abel Laureates 2008

John Griggs Thompson, University of Florida and Jacques Tits, Collège de France

«for their profound achievements in algebra and in particular for shaping modern group theory»

Abel Laureate 2007

Srinivasa S. R. Varadhan, Courant Institute of Mathematical Sciences, New York

«for his fundamental contributions to probability theory and in particular for creating a unified theory of large deviations.»

Abel Laureate 2006

Lennart Carleson, Royal Institute of Technology, Sweden

«for his profound and seminal contributions to harmonic analysis and the theory of smooth dynamical systems.»

Abel Laureate 2005

Peter D. Lax, *Courant Institute of Mathematical Sciences,
New York University*

«for his groundbreaking contributions to the theory and application of partial differential equations and to the computation of their solutions»

Abel Laureates 2004

Sir Michael Atiyah, University of Edinburgh and Isadore M. Singer, Massachusetts Institute of Technology

«for their discovery and proof of the index theorem, bringing together topology, geometry and analysis, and their outstanding role in building new bridges between mathematics and theoretical physics»

Abel Laureate 2003

Jean-Pierre Serre, Collège de France

«for playing a key role in shaping the modern form of many parts of mathematics, including topology, algebraic geometry and number theory»
